Defining the TOTAL Middle School Band Program...

let's work smarter, not harder!

In the world of middle school band, one size definitely does not fit all!
Regardless of your school size, location, or demographic,
you can develop a healthy band program for your middle school.

This clinic presentation provides a checklist of key components that will allow you to create and implement a healthy version of the TOTAL middle school band program.

EXPECTATIONS & ACCOUNTABILITY

Once the framework is in place for a functional, well-managed classroom where students know what to do and how to get along, you can focus on actions to move them along musically to challenge their thinking, inspire their desire to learn and help them achieve their highest potential.

COUCH POTATO	WALKER	JOGGER	MARATHONER	TOUGH MUDDER
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>✓ Students not held accountable regarding materials &amp; equipment</li> <li>✓ No consequences</li> <li>✓ No attendance requirements or expectations</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>✓ Student requirement of basic materials &amp; equipment</li> <li>✓ Consequences realistic/appropriate</li> <li>✓ Regular attendance at events/rehearsals</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>✓ Student requirement of additional materials &amp; equipment</li> <li>✓ Consequences realistic/appropriate</li> <li>✓ Regular attendance at events/rehearsals</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>✓ Student requirement of specific materials &amp; equipment</li> <li>✓ Consequences realistic/appropriate</li> <li>✓ Regular attendance at events/rehearsals</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>✓ Student equipment requirements excessive</li> <li>✓ Abuse of students' time/ many extra rehearsals</li> <li>✓ No compromise regarding other obligations</li> </ul>

Suggestions: Director documents student performance; homework expectations; assignment sheets; director communicates time lines for short and long term goals.

Technology: remind 101 to text assignment reminders, websites for posting announcements; district gradebook
